The
Director said while such reports are interesting they are too costly and could just as well be [ ] [ ] commented that the subject of lengthy cable reports had been discussed at a recent DD/P staff meeting and hoped this discussion would bear fruit.
The Director remarked that he believed the time had about come when instructions should be sent to the field directing that the length of certain cable reports be limited to the bare essentials with the exception of emergency cases. ACTION: (DD/P).

This lead to a discussion as to whether or not it was necessary to reduce and/or cut out cabled [ ] material to headquarters -- e.g., the lengthy cable received a few days ago containing [ ] material based on a report dated 27 February. The Director said he was not sure it was necessary to cut down on this type of material sent by cable since he found all of it intensely interesting and by and large timely. In connection with [ ] Mr. Amory raised the question as to whether it would not be possible to include selected items in the CIB. The Director said he saw no reason why not and in fact had asked the same question. [ ] commented that if we could protect the source he saw no reason why more use could not be made and undertook to have [ ] get in touch with ADCI on this matter to see what could be worked out.
